ADAMS Promotes William D. Hucks to Executive Vice President

Rome, GA, August 16, 2010 – Steven W. Irmscher, President/CEO of ADAMS Management Services Corporation (ADAMS), is pleased to announce the promotion of William D. Hucks to Executive Vice President. Mr. Hucks has over seventeen years experience in the healthcare construction industry with the past ten years exclusively focused in healthcare owner representation and program management.

Mr. Hucks has been instrumental in the growth and success of ADAMS. In his previous role as Executive Director, Mr. Hucks carried overall responsibility for the successful delivery of ADAMS program management services and developing and maintaining ADAMS peer relationships within the industry. He has been involved in a number of successful program management and advisory engagements delivering a broad range of services that vary from managing the planning, design, construction and occupancy of healthcare facilities to consulting on real estate options as well as organizational development for internal healthcare planning and construction departments.

His client engagement responsibilities have included working with senior leadership to develop the goals and objectives of respective programs, ensuring client satisfaction, providing oversight of the ADAMS team on each engagement and supporting the ADAMS staff in developing creative solutions to challenges beyond typical program management roles and responsibilities.

In his new role as Executive Vice President, Mr. Hucks is responsible for all professional services operations, client relationship management, development of new engagement opportunities and staff development and growth.

Mr. Hucks may be contacted at the firm's corporate office located at 401 Broad Street, Suite 100; Rome, GA 30161. The office phone number is 706.234.7971 and fax number is 706.234.7316.
